

Navigating Complexity in Post-Acute Care

Daniel Hermann

Daniel Hermann is Senior Managing Director at Ziegler, head of Ziegler's investment banking practice, and a member of the Board of Directors. During his 25 year tenure, he has become a leading investment banker in the senior living industry, with far-ranging experience in the management, structuring, and financial analysis of every type of senior living financing. Prior to joining Ziegler, he worked for a "Big Four" public accounting firm. Hermann received a B.S. from Illinois State University and an M.B.A. from Northwestern University.

David Fenoglietto

David Fenoglietto is President and CEO of Lutheran Senior Life. Fenoglietto has 25 years of professional experience, with senior management positions for health care systems at Hamot Medical Center and St. Vincent Medical Center, and for a physician practice management division of Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield. Prior to becoming President and CEO, Fenoglietto was Vice President of System Development at Lutheran SeniorLife. Fenoglietto earned a Master of Science degree from Gannon University and an undergraduate degree from California University of Pennsylvania.

Eric Gurley

Eric Gurley is Chief Executive Officer of Immanuel. Gurley is a skilled financial and operational professional with more than 20 years of senior housing and health care experience, excelling in the areas of strategic planning, implementation and reporting. Gurley is currently a member of the Omaha Symphony Board, Omaha Chamber of Commerce Board, and Executive and Finance Committees.

Carol McKinley

Carol McKinley, Ph.D, is the Vice President of Operations at The United Methodist Homes of New Jersey Inc. McKinley previously served as Assistant Nursing Home Administrator and Assistant Executive Director of Resident Care and Services at Foxdale Village (PA), and Vice President of Service Excellence at Albright Care Services (PA). Earlier, McKinley was a Clinical and Medical Social Worker and Family Therapist. She has been on many boards, including the boards of the United Methodist Association, LeadingAge, and St. Peter's United Methodist Church Pastor Parish Committee.