

The Ultimate Partnership: CEO and Board Chair Collaboration in Times of Disruptive Change

Ken Daly

Ken Daly is the retired Chief Executive Officer of the National Association of Corporate Directors (NACD), and a nationally recognized expert on corporate governance, audits, financial management and board transformation. Daly was previously an audit partner at KPMG and executive director of KPMG's Audit Committee Institute. Daly received his bachelor's degree from the University of Delaware and attended KPMG's International Partner Program. He is a certified public accountant (inactive status) in Pennsylvania.

Larry Bradshaw

Larry Bradshaw is President and CEO of National Lutheran Communities & Services. Previously, he was CFO and Executive Vice President for Strategic Growth with Asbury Communities. Larry was also the principal of Bradshaw Insights Group. Larry is an active member of LeadingAge and LeadingAge Maryland, has served as a CCAC Commissioner, and as Chair of CCAC's Financial Advisory Panel. Larry has a B.S. in Accounting from Emporia State University and an M.B.A. in Technology Management from The University of Phoenix.

Tommie L. Robinson, Jr.

Dr. Tommie L. Robinson, Jr., PhD, is the Chair of the Board of Trustees for National Lutheran Communities & Services. Dr. Robinson is Director of the Scottish Rite Center for Childhood Language Disorders at Children's National Health System, and an Associate Professor of Pediatrics at The George Washington University School of Medicine. Dr. Robinson's accomplishments and awards are many, including serving as president of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association. Dr. Robinson holds a B.A. from The University of Mississippi and a M.A. and a Ph.D. from Howard University.