

What's next in Affordable Housing?

Andrew Genszler

Andrew Genszler is President and CEO of Lutheran Metropolitan Ministry. Previously, Genszler worked as Director of Advocacy for Lutheran Services in America, Director for Domestic Policy at the ELCA, and Director of ELCA Advocacy. He is an ordained Lutheran minister serving as a chaplain in the United States Navy Reserve. Genszler has a bachelor degree from Wittenberg University, a master of divinity degree from Trinity Lutheran Seminary, and a master's degree in Christian ethics from the University of Oxford.

Janet Pope

Janet Pope is Executive Director of Compass Housing Alliance. Prior to a stint as Executive Director of Seattle Musical Theatre, she served as the Director of HomeStep, a services enriched transitional housing program. Before leading HomeStep, Pope was Executive Director of the Interfaith Association of Northwest Washington. Pope has a bachelor's degree from the University of Washington, a master's degree from the Drama School of London, and a master's degree from Seattle University.

Paul Weech

Paul Weech is President and CEO of NeighborWorks America. Weech was previously executive vice president for policy and external affairs at the Housing Partnership Network, chief of staff at the U.S. Small Business Administration, and mission-related policy roles for U.S. Senate Committees. Weech serves on several boards, including the National Low Income Housing Coalition and the National Housing Conference. He received a master's degree from the University of Michigan and a bachelor's degree from Duke University.